

Top 10 Christmas Markets in Rome

Discover the magic of the holiday season with this guide to Rome's best Christmas markets. From festive gifts to delicious seasonal treats, these markets offer a variety of shopping and dining experiences.

Piazza Navona Christmas Market

December 1, 2024 to January 6, 2025

- Crafts & Gifts: Browse a wide array of handcrafted gifts, ornaments, and holiday decorations.
- Food: Enjoy traditional Italian sweets such as torrone (nougat) and roasted chestnuts.
- Atmosphere: Known for its vibrant and festive atmosphere, featuring a beautiful carousel for children and street performers.

EUR Laghetto Christmas Market

Early December to January 6th

- Crafts & Gifts: Browse for unique gifts, decorations, and artisanal products.
- Food: A range of food stalls featuring seasonal Italian specialties.
- Atmosphere: A large, well-organized market with ample space and festive decorations.

Piazza di Santa Maria Christmas Market

Early December to Christmas Eve

- Crafts & Gifts: Handmade crafts, artisanal goods, and unique Christmas decorations.
- Food: Savor local delicacies and festive treats like panettone and mulled wine.
- Atmosphere: A charming market in the heart of the Trastevere neighborhood with a cozy, local vibe.

Casina di Raffaello Christmas Market

Mid-December to Christmas Eve

- Crafts & Gifts: A family-friendly market with toys, handmade gifts, and decorations.
- Food: Enjoy traditional holiday sweets and snacks from various vendors.
- Atmosphere: Set in a scenic park, this market is ideal for families and features activities for children.

Mercato Monti Christmas Market

Every Weekend, All Year Long

- Crafts & Gifts: Features a mix of vintage and handmade goods, including unique gifts and retro finds.
- Food: Small food stalls offering a selection of holiday treats and snacks.
- Atmosphere: An eclectic and stylish market known for its trendy and artistic offerings.

Circus Maximus Christmas Market

December to early January

- Crafts & Gifts: Features a variety of stalls selling holiday gifts and crafts.
- Food: Enjoy traditional festive foods and street food.
- Atmosphere: A large, family-friendly market with a beautiful setting near the ancient Circus Maximus. It also hosts entertainment and activities for children.

Top Christmas Markets in Rome

Discover the magic of the holiday season with this guide to Rome's best Christmas markets. From festive gifts to delicious seasonal treats, these markets offer a variety of shopping and dining experiences.

Villa Celimontana Christmas Market

Early December to Christmas Eve

- Crafts & Gifts: A charming market with a focus on artisanal goods and handmade items.
- Food: Seasonal treats and local specialties.
- Atmosphere: Set in a historic villa with a relaxed, scenic environment perfect for a leisurely visit.

Campo de' Fiori Christmas Market

Mid-December to Christmas Eve

- Crafts & Gifts: Find a mix of traditional and contemporary holiday gifts.
- Food: Seasonal foods and classic Italian treats.
- Atmosphere: A lively market in a historic square known for its daily market and vibrant atmosphere.

The Auditorium Christmas Market

Early December to January 7

- Crafts & Gifts: Handmade gifts and decorations, often including some Roman-themed items.
- Food: Enjoy a range of Italian holiday foods and snacks.
- Atmosphere: A picturesque market with views of the Colosseum, offering a unique combination of history and festivity.

La Nuova Fiera di Roma Christmas Market

December 1 to December 23

- Crafts & Gifts: A large market featuring a wide range of gifts, crafts, and holiday decorations.
- Food: Various food stalls with seasonal Italian specialties and international cuisines.
- Atmosphere: One of the largest Christmas markets in Rome, with extensive vendor options and entertainment.

Tips for Visiting Christmas Markets in Rome:

- Cash: Bring cash as some stalls may not accept credit cards.
- Timing: Visit earlier in the day or during the week to avoid the largest crowds.
- Weather: December can be chilly, so dress warmly and wear comfortable shoes for walking.
- Transportation: Some lesser-known markets might be further from the city center, so consider using public transportation or a taxi.
- Local Insights: Ask locals or your accommodation staff for additional recommendations or updates on market hours and special events.

Enjoy the festive atmosphere and make the most of Rome's charming Christmas markets!